Sir,

In their Order No.Mis. 822 Education dated - 4- 28, Government sanctioned the conversion of the vernment Elementary School for Girls', Bellary into Middle School, with effect from the current school ar. The Inspectress, Ceded Districts Circle has now bmitted proposals for raising it to the status of a condary School from 1929- 30. I am, however, amining the question in detail separately, with a view formulating a complete scheme in connection with rt II of the Budget Estimate for 1930- 31. In the anwhile, the Inspectress brings to my notice that the need for a Kanarese Pandit in the school is pressing. In support of her proposal she states, that, Bellary being a bilingual district, provision for the teaching of both Kanarese and Telugu should be made in the school under reference and that provision at present is for teaching Telugu only. The number on rolls at present is 191 and of these, 50 pupils desire instruction in Kanarese.

With a view to providing for instruction in Kanarese for these pupils and to enable the institution to maintain its popularity, the Inspectress recommends the appointment of a Kanarese Pandit. I agree with the Inspectress and I have accordingly the honour to request that Government may be pleased to sanction the employment with effect from 1-7-1929 of a Kanarese Pandit on Rs.40- 2- 50 per mensem in the Government Middle School for Girls', Bellary.

2. The extra cost involved by the above proposal will be Rs.320/- (Rupees.40 x 8 months) during 1929-30, the ultimate cost being Rs.560/- (Rs.46 2/3 average pay x 12 months).

3. The scheme will be included in Part II of the Budget Estimate for 1929- 30.
